1) Which type of inheritance can be rejected and which can not?

2) May a husband tell his wife that he won't feed her and take a her earnings? May he say to her "I won't take your fruit and I won't redeem you if it becomes necessary"?

3) If a buyer pays a woman can she claim that the sale was not sincere?

4) Which field can she not claim that she did the husband a favor?

5) If a husband sells his "fruit rights", what works and what doesn't?
6) Why should both have the law of 24 hours? Why neither?
7) How could a husband have a chazakah in his wife's field?
8) How could a stranger have a chazakah in a woman's field?
9) Which damages have no chazakah?
10) How does a present to his wife differ from a sale to her?
