Name _____

1. Why don't we say that a waiver by mistake applies to the case where one promises to sell a field if the money is not paid back after three years, and then he doesn't take it back right away?
2. Why aren't ailonis and price fraud proofs to waiver by mistake?
3. if someone did a collection without deduction and could pay at any time, is the person obligated to pay back the produce that was taken?
4. Why do Rava and R. Ami disagree as to whether consumption of produce is tantamount to repayment of the loan?

5. What is the law in a case of collateral without deduction together with the requirement to wait 3 years to take it back?

6. What are the parameters of “kitzusa”?

7. How does the ability to remove right away offset shmittah and inheritance?

8. What rights does receiving collateral provide to us regarding buying it?

9. What's wrong with documents of Mechoza and leases of Narsha?

10. What is the legal way to make a profit split by an investment?
