Name

1. In which case does Rav Huna say that one who swears falsely does not have to pay?

2. In which cases would he have to pay?

3. Why is a person who swears five times required to bring five אשמות?

4. How do we know that a custodian who claims theft pays four or five?

5. How many possible answers does the gemara say that we could have answered in the case of witnesses testifying about eating?

6. When is a partial admission required and when is it an argument? Why are loans and deposits possibly different?

7. Why should a custodian who claims theft require שליחות יד?

8 Why should שליחות יד make a custodian claiming theft absolved from כפל?

9. Which three oaths does a unpaid watchman make?

10. What is the case of Rami bar Chamah's question and what are the reasons for the question?
